No. C 18-03748 WHA

12 v.

13 U. S. DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS
14 AFFAIRS, and ROBERT WILKIE, Secretary,
15 U. S. Department of Veteran's Affairs,

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

16 Defendants.
17 _____/

18 In this pro se employment discrimination action, plaintiff moves for reconsideration of 19 the November 2 order denying her request to file supplemental briefing. This order finds no 20 grounds for reconsideration.

21 Under Civil Local Rule 7-9(b), a party moving for leave to file a motion for 22 reconsideration must show one of the following:

23 (1) That at the time of the motion for leave, a material difference
24 in fact or law exists from that which was presented to the Court 25 before entry of the interlocutory order for which reconsideration is sought. The party also must show that in the exercise of reasonable diligence the party applying for reconsideration did not know such fact or law at the time of the interlocutory order; or

26 (2) The emergence of new material facts or a change of law
27 occurring after the time of such order; or

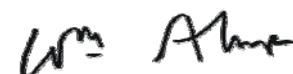

28 (3) A manifest failure by the Court to consider material facts or dispositive legal arguments which were presented to the Court before such interlocutory order.

1 Here, plaintiff has not shown that any of the above three grounds applies in this matter.
2 Instead, plaintiff alleges that defendants' counsel "didn't act in good faith" and that plaintiff did
3 not previously have the chance to review the case law defendants cited in their motion to dismiss
4 prior to filing her opposition. Moreover, plaintiff already made most of the arguments put forth
5 in her opposition to defendants' motion to dismiss. Thus, allowing plaintiff to repeat her
6 arguments would violate Local Rule 7-9(c), which states that "[n]o motion for leave to file a 7 motion for reconsideration may repeat any oral or written argument made by the applying party."
8 To the extent plaintiff raises new arguments in this motion, plaintiff is advised that a motion for 9 leave to file a motion for reconsideration is an improper vehicle.

10 Accordingly, plaintiff's motion is DENIED.

11
12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
